Instruction Memorandum No. CO-2006-026
Expires: 09/30/2007

To: Field Office Managers

From: State Director

Subject: Cultural Resource Standards and Guidelines for Renewal of Right-of-Way grants and Temporary Use Permits under Section 106 of National Historic Preservation Act.

Program Area: Cultural Resources and Land and Realty

Purpose: The objective of this memorandum, and the attached Standards and Guidelines, is to clarify the Section 106 requirements as outlined in the Colorado Protocol for the renewal of Right-of-Way (ROW) grants and Temporary Use Permits (TUPs) that are requested of the Bureau of Land Management with no changes or different use. The Standards and Guidelines were developed with full participation of field office staff. We thank you for your staff's participation in this effort and ask your assistance in implementing these standards. These guidelines will be added to the Colorado Manual 8100 Series in one year.

Contact: Please direct questions regarding this Instruction Memorandum to Dan Haas, Deputy Preservation Officer, Colorado State Office, at 303-239-3647, or Dan_Haas@co.blm.gov.
